

Would you like to see a little girl's face light up with pleasure?"

These Beautiful Hand-Knitted Woollen Dolls Are A Child's Delight (Adults Love Them Too!)

Jenny

Jenny is 16 inches in height and weighs 5 ounces.

She has pink skin, a darker pink dress (removable) with 3 mother of pearl buttons.

She is wearing matching pink booties (not removable), has a matching pink undergarment (removable), and has fawn coloured hair with pink ribbons.

Her eyes are blue.

Dear parent, relative, friend or neighbour,

Can there be a more satisfying experience than the look of sheer delight on a child's face as they receive a gift they truly love?

I have been fortunate enough to witness these expressions of delight over the many years I have been making dolls for children - 47 years to be exact. (Sadly not with my own children (both boys) and grandchildren (all boys)!

As the child eagerly removes the wrapping paper and sees their present, their little eyes sparkle, they give a big smile and clutch the doll eagerly to their chest.

Jenny, Emma, Charlotte or whatever name they choose for their doll becomes their close companion. They take it everywhere. Around the home, on visits, even to bed. Don't try to take the doll away from them whatever you do!

Each doll is individually hand made from double-knit wool. No machining is used at any stage. I also use cotton for the eyes. They are stuffed with kapok and/or pillow filling. They will give a lifetime of pleasure and make an ideal birthday or Christmas gift.
